He scored the Republican administration for its sins of omission and commission, and was especially severe in his condemnation of the Dingley tariff bill, blaming it for the late panic. He said there would be more suffering in New York and other centres of population the coming winter than there has been for twenty years. The Governor had the sympathy of his audience, and he was liberally applauded. He pleaded for the election of Byars and the defeat of Slemp.

Judge Mann Delivers Addresses.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CEDARVILLES, VA., October 25.—
Judge William Hodges Mann delivered a fine campaign address here Satarday night, under the auspices of the Bryan, Kern and Hay Club.

Roosevelt figured as the bright, particular object of his irony, while "Uncle Joe,", Taft, Sherman and Longworth came in for heavy attacks. Upon Roosevelt primarily he placed the responsibility for the present panic, which, he maintained, is of purely artificial origin.

In the afternoon Judge Mann addressed the voters of Clark county in the courthouse at Berryville.

DANVILLE, VA., October 26.—A preliminary trial was waived by Attorney H. H. Custer for the detense in the Mayor's Court this morning in the case of W. Belt Samuels, the former Danville saloon-keeper, who Saturday, afternoon shot and instantly killed Chief of Police W. V. Flamagan, of Draper, N. C. The slayer of the Draper officer was yesterday removed to the jail at Chatham for safe-keeping. The removal was not made on account of any threats of violence, but on account of the lack of proper jail facilities here. A new prison has been, and is now, under construction, and the prisoners are confined in a temporary structure, which is not deemed a safe place for Samuels, owing to the seriousness of the offense with which he is charged.

T. J. Martin, a lumberman, of Pulham, N. C., who witnessed the shooting, which took place in front of the house of Eva Boyd, a white woman, was to-day required to give $1,000 bond for his appearance at the trial, which takes place at the December term of the Corporation Court in Danville, He had no trouble in furnishing the bond.
Mr. Martin will be the star witness for the Commonwealth. According to his testimony, Flanagan was leaving the house of the Boyd woman when Samuels shot him in the back, and then Tred two more times at him after he had fallen to the ground. Eva Boyd, jealousy of whom is believed to have been the cause of the shooting, and her sister, Cora Boyd, who are also regarded as being important witnesses, were released to-day upon furnishing $500 bond each. They were also placed under police surveillance. The funeral services of the dead Draper officer were conducted yesterday afternoon at Leaksyille, N. C., under the auspices of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics, of which he was a member. He was thirty-three years of age, and had been chief of police and sheriff at Draper for the past year. He is highly spoken of by all who knew him.
